4 ORGANIZATION OF THE EDUCATIONAL PROCESS ACCORDING TO THE CREDIT TECHNOLOGY OF TRAINING

The organization of the educational process within one academic year is carried out on the basis of the academic calendar, which is approved by the Chairman of the Management Board-Rector on the basis of the decision of the Academic Council.

The academic year consists of academic periods, periods of intermediate certification, vacations and practices. In the final year, the final certification period is included in the academic year.

The academic period at AUEZOV University has a duration of 15 weeks for a semester. The interim certification period has a duration of at least 1 week.

Holidays are granted to students after each academic period, with the duration of the vacation time in the academic year being at least 7 weeks.

5 FORMATION OF AN INDIVIDUAL EDUCATIONAL TRAJECTORY OF A STUDENT

The credit technology of training is based on the independent planning of the educational program for students, the choice of an individual learning trajectory(ITO), the motivation to increase the level of self-education. The choice of the educational trajectory by the student is carried out with the help of an academic mentor - adviser.

The student must register for a certain number of credits provided for by the standard curriculum of the specialty. Based on the standard curriculum and the catalog of elective disciplines (CED), the student chooses mandatory and elective disciplines, taking into account the required number of credits, which are reflected in the individual curriculum (IC). The choice of disciplines should be carried out with mandatory consideration of the logical sequence of their study.

The selection of disciplines and teachers for the study of disciplines takes place through official registration, which is coordinated by the Registrar's office.

Students of the 2nd and senior courses begin the registration procedure for academic disciplines from March. For 1st-year students, registration for academic disciplines is organized after their enrollment until August 30.

The choice of disciplines is determined under the guidance of an adviser. Using the presentation method, the adviser offers the student alternatives to each discipline from the catalog of elective disciplines (CED), introduces the prerequisites and post-prerequisites of the discipline, advises in determining the study of disciplines.

The recording will be made in electronic form. When recording, the student enters the recording program under his username and password.

The Registrar's office and the deans of faculties / higher schools monitor the state of affairs on the registration of students for courses, taking organizational measures to ensure registration, if necessary.

The student has the right to choose a candidate for a teacher in mandatory disciplines.

The Registrar's office, in coordination with the educational and methodological department and the deans of faculties/higher schools, sets the minimum number of students to include the discipline in the curriculum of the specialty, and for each teacher - the maximum number of students in the academic group.

If the number of registered students for the proposed discipline of their choice turned out to be less than an acceptable number, then the discipline is not included in the working curriculum. Students who have enrolled in this discipline must submit applications for changes in individual curricula to the Registrar's office.

In the event that the number of students enrolled in one teacher exceeds the established limit, an additional academic stream (group) is formed with the appointment of a teacher of the appropriate qualification.

When drawing up their IP, students:

1) get acquainted with the rules of the organization of the educational process on the credit technology of training;

2) comply with the established deadlines for registration for academic disciplines and making changes to the IP;

3) they are registered for at least a set number of credits in the academic year for the development of an educational program of the appropriate level.

Students on a paid basis, depending on their ability to pay, the form of training, and individual abilities, form their IP with fewer credits than are established for the development of an educational program of the appropriate level, while the duration of training increases.

A student cannot be registered for a discipline if in the previous semester he did not master the prerequisites necessary for its study. The choice of basic disciplines is carried out taking into account the professional orientation of the student, but the IUP, at the request of the student, can also include disciplines declared in the block of basic disciplines in other specialties.

The student is responsible for the preparation of the IUP and the completeness of the development of the course of study in accordance with the requirements of the standard curriculum of the specialty.

The departments provide students with academic programs of disciplines (Syllabus) with the indication of credits for each discipline.

6 REGISTER'S OFFICE

According to the point-rating system, 60% of points are allocated for current control and 40% for intermediate certification. The system of estimation knowledge in the Republic of Kazakhstan based on mark and rating alphabetic system of an assessment of the educational achievements of students, corresponding to the digital equivalent of the four-mark system:

A positive assessment (from A, to A - "excellent", B+, B, B -, C+ "good" to C, C -, D, D -, "satisfactory") is recorded in the examination sheet for the academic discipline and the student's record book. The grade F "unsatisfactory" is put down only in the examination sheet.

In cases that make it impossible to assess the student's achievement of learning results through distance learning technologies (for example, practical skills mastered in laboratory and other conditions directly at the university and (or) on a practical basis), the discipline is transferred to the next academic year, and the student is rated "not completed" ("I"). If the student does not pass the intermediate certification within the specified period, the student is rated "unsatisfactory" ("F").

If the student did not show up for the exam, a mark "did not show up" is made in the examination sheet next to his last name. If there is a valid reason, the dean's office decides to pass this exam on an individual basis.

Students who received "unsatisfactory" grades at the session, who were not admitted to the session due to the low current rating, are granted the right to liquidate academic debt during the next semester or during the Summer Semester on a paid basis. At the same time, the student re-studies the relevant disciplines on a paid basis, passes all forms of current and final control.

It is not allowed to retake a positive assessment on the final control in order to increase it during the same period of intermediate certification.

When writing to the library, the reader must familiarize himself with its rules and confirm the obligation to fulfill them with his signature in the reader's form.

The library card is the only document that gives the right to use all the structural divisions of the library.

The validity period of the reader's ticket is an academic year. Every year, the reader is obliged to re-register for a subscription in the main building on the 1st floor and make an appropriate mark in the reader's ticket. When re-registering, the reader is obliged to hand over all the literature listed for him. Otherwise: readers are not served, literature is not issued.

Upon leaving the university, readers return to the library, the publications listed for them and the library card.

When receiving books and other materials, readers carefully review the publications and, if any defects are found, inform the librarian about this, otherwise the reader who used the publication last is responsible for the damage of books.

Digital library

A digital library is an ordered collection of heterogeneous electronic documents (including books, magazines), equipped with navigation and search tools. It can be a website where various texts (usually literary, but also scientific and any other, up to computer programs) and media files are gradually accumulated.
