

Practice of students

The "Philosophy" department has established bases for professional internships for students in accordance with the curriculum of the educational program "6B02210 - Philosophy," including introductory internships, Production Internship I, Production Internship II, and pre-diploma internships.

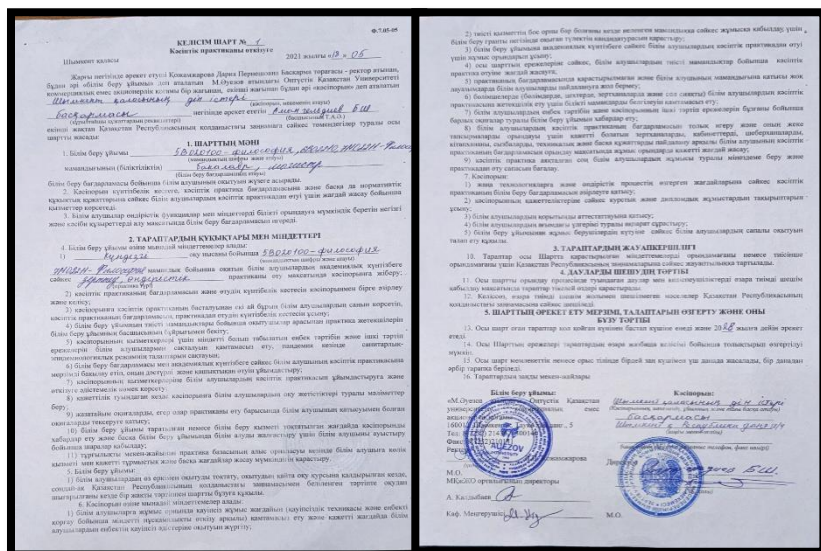

For the educational program "6B02210 – Philosophy," contracts have been signed with several government institutions and public organizations located in Shymkent as bases for professional practice:

- Akimat of Shymkent;
- Department of Religious Affairs;
- Communal State Institution "Center for the Study of Religious Issues";
- Shymkent City Branch of the Political Party "Amanat";
- Shymkent City Branch of the Political Party "Akzhol";
- "Saz" College;
- Industrial Technical College;
- Scientific Center "History and Ethnology" of South Kazakhstan State University named after M. Auezov;
- College of South Kazakhstan University;
- Information and Analytical Center;
- Shymkent City Department of Internal Policy.

As a result of the professional practice, students have been offered employment. For example, as of today, the following students have successfully found jobs: J.V. Daulett, a student from the group YM-18-6k, in the Department of Internal Policy of the Saryagash District of Turkestan Region;

Professional practices for the educational program "6B02211 – Religious Studies and Philosophy" are planned to take place at the Department of Religious Affairs and Akimat of Shymkent.

The Municipal State Institution "Center for the Study of Religious Issues". Qualified industry specialists have been engaged to supervise the professional internship activities. Qualified professionals from the relevant field have been involved in overseeing students' professional practice.

Professor of Kastamonu University (Turkey), Candidate of Philosophical Sciences H.A. Şimşek delivered a series of lectures to students of the “6B02210 – Philosophy” educational program during the 2022–2023 academic year on the topic “The Sufi World of Khoja Ahmed Yassawi.”

Head of the Department of Social Sciences at Navoi State Pedagogical University, Republic of Uzbekistan, Doctor of Philosophy, Professor N.O. Safarova, delivered a series of lectures to students of the “6B02210 – Philosophy” educational program during the 2024–2025 academic year on the topic “Eastern Philosophical Thought.”

Participation in the seminar of Saz College during the professional internship of the student of the 6B02210 – Philosophy educational program, S. Nurdaulet.

